

IRS TAXPAYER ASSISTANCE CENTERS IN VIRGINIA TO OPEN ON "SUPER SATURDAY"

Area Residents Encouraged to Attend March 21st Event to Get FREE Tax Help

Who:

Nine IRS Taxpayer Assistance Centers in Virginia will open their doors on "Super Saturday," March 21, 2009, to provide free tax help to area residents.

What:

IRS employees will go the extra mile on Super Saturday to assist area taxpayers with the following services:

- Preparing basic tax returns for those who qualify for Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) or those whose income is less than $42,000
- Resolving tax issues
- Answering tax law questions
- Making account adjustments
- Accepting payments
- Establishing payment agreements for those who cannot pay taxes in full
- Working with people having a hard time paying
- Providing tax forms and information about e-File, which can save time necessary to receive refunds

When:

Saturday, March 21, 2009, from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM

Where:

5205 Leesburg Pike, Rm. 200, Bailey's Crossroads, VA 22041

2426 Lee Hwy., Bristol, VA 24202

401 East Market Street, Charlottesville, VA 22902

903 Enterprise Parkway, Hampton, VA 23666

1101 Court St., Lynchburg, VA 24504

200 Granby St., Norfolk, VA 23510

400 N. Eighth St., Richmond, VA 23219

210 1st St. SW, Roanoke, VA, 24011

1600 N. Coalter St., Staunton, VA 24401

Why:

The IRS recognizes that many area taxpayers may be facing financial hardships and need extra help this tax filing season.

Media Contacts:

Jim Dupree, IRS Media Relations Specialist

Office: 410-962-9324 Mobile: 443-540-4967